INTRODUCTION

The Auburn Mausoleum Association, Inc., Auburn, Indiana, a non-profit organization, owns the mausoleum which is located in the southeast corner of the Roselawn Cemetery, Auburn, Indiana; however, it is not a part of either Roselawn Cemetery nor of Woodlawn Cemetery.

This mausoleum, built in 1917, contains 232 crypts. Most of these crypts have been sold, even though there are only 175 in use at this time. In some cases, more than one person has been buried in a single crypt. Persons who died prior to 1917, and who are now buried in the mausoleum, were exhumed from other places of burial and interred in the mausoleum.

There is definite military information given on several of the crypts. In cases where there is no military data inscribed and an American flag displayed, the word "flag" has been indicated on the diagram. This does not necessarily indicate that the person buried in that specific crypt did actually engage in military service, rather it would indicate the possibility that this may be true, since the flag is present.

In this book will be found a diagram of the mausoleum, showing the two corridors, with row and crypt numbers as they appear on the official mausoleum records. A coding for this drawing is shown under "Explanation". Also, there is an alphabetical listing of all names of the persons buried there.

It is only through the generous assistance and cooperation of Mr. Ernest A. Husselman (Husselman Monument Company), 400 East Seventh Street, Auburn, Indiana, that this information has been compiled. Without his support, this information would not have been available.

Because of the value of this information to persons doing genealogical research, a copy will be placed in the Eckart Public Library, Auburn, Indiana; a copy in the Genealogy Section of the Public Library, Fort Wayne, Indiana, and a copy placed in the hands of Mrs. Steven Newhard, Harlan, Indiana, Editor of "Tri-State Ancestry", News-Sentinel, Fort Wayne, Indiana.
